"In these pages, St.

Thomas

Aquinas gives you the help that you need to pray more attentively and to become a better

Christian. He employs more than six hundred

Scriptural

references to illuminate the Lord's Prayer, the Hail Mary and the

Apostles' Creed. St.

Thomas' clear, simple, phrase-by-phrase explanations of the three greatest of all Christian prayers reveal their relations to Scripture, to the sacraments, to the Church, to the moral law, and to salvation history. As you read these pages, you will discover how our familiar, daily prayers are far richer than we realize: indeed, they embody the very substance of our Christian faith." [Book jacket].

 Tantum ergo Sacramentum Veneremur cernui Down in adoration falling, Lo! The Sacred Host we hail These words, written by the great theologian St. Thomas Aquinas, have inspired millions over the past seven centuries. St. Thomas's devotion to the Eucharist was profound. His brother Dominicans recalled that he would spend long hours kneeling before the tabernacle. When he faced a particularly difficult problem, he would lean against the tabernacle, as if to rest against the Master's heart as did the Beloved Disciple at the Last Supper. Now St. Thomas's immortal poems of praise - in both their original Latin and stunning translation - have been assembled along with insightful meditations and commentary by Mike Aquilina in Praying in the Presence of Our Lord with St. Thomas Aquinas. A Devotional Prayer Journal Christus Publishing Her writings are more than 400 years old, yet Teresa of Avila continues to impact Christians with her fervent, passionate faith in God. the teachings of this sixteenth-century Spanish saint and mystic are practical enough for modern society because they are based on sheer devotion and holiness to God through prayer and common sense. Edited by James Houston, a highly acclaimed scholar and pioneer in the field of evangelical spirituality.
