 The Real Freemasonry told by Masons (Dormer)
 It was in the belief that modern Freemasonry is the successor to the ancient Mystery Systems, and that its worth as a spiritual and moral force in society can be developed only through an increased understanding of its own system, that the Dormer Masonic Study Circle was founded on...

 the dormer masonic study circle #47 "THE GREAT WORK IN SPECULATIVE FREEMASONRY"
 "There can be no rational doubt, however, that the moral influence of Freemasonry would be much more powerful and efficient if the sources of intelligence amongst the Fraternity were augmented, and a higher grade of science substituted for the meagre outline which at present prevails in our Lodges."

 Dormer Masonic Study Circle #157
 Of course the morality of Freemasonry must be illustrated by symbols, for there is nothing else. Many papers, not just recent ones, have pointed out that everything we use is a symbol. A symbol is something we are familiar with, which, in addition to its conventional meaning, has a specific connotation, beyond the MasonicWorld.com
 Paper on Masonic Education. And now, Brethren, to bring this matter to you as members of the Dormer Masonic Study Circle, I believe that this Circle can be the training ground for the skilled Brethren whose duty it should be to attend to the matter of Masonic Education within the Lodges. My remarks, of course,....
