Dorling Kindersley Ltd
Don't have time to plan your family trip to London with children? Overwhelmed by the thousands of reviews, articles, and books about what you can do in the city? "London in a Weekend with Two Kids" will help you plan for your trip using a step-by-step itinerary. It's a thoroughly-researched book that'll tell you exactly what to do with your family when you're short on time. Note: This is NOT an extensive London travel guide. It is a super-short book that'll help you spend less time on reading and researching about your trip and more time on enjoying London with children. Here's what you'll learn: What to do before your trip What "must-see" landmarks you should visit with your kids The recommended duration to spend at each location Approximate price ranges for tickets and restaurants The free apps to download for your trip The things to see in London for kids The best place to have afternoon tea in London with kids Where to find the best food in London And much, much more things to see in London for kids. The book is divided into four main walkable zones that you can visit within half a day each: Zone 1 (Friday afternoon): Oxford Street, Hamleys, Leicester Square, and Covent Garden Zone 2 (Saturday morning): Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, London Eye, and the Thames River Zone 3 (Saturday afternoon): ZSL London Zoo and Camden Market Zone 4 (Sunday morning): Hyde Park, Harrods, and St. Ermin's Tea Lounge (to have afternoon tea in London with kids) This itinerary is designed to be completed in a full weekend, starting on a Friday afternoon and continuing through Sunday evening (i.e., two and a half days). However, the plan is flexible enough that it can be completed in just two days if you want to (e.g., Saturday morning through Sunday evening), because it includes an extra half a day as a backup. Free Bonus As a free bonus for purchasing this book, you'll get a downloadable visual guide (a PDF file) that includes maps of the zones that are covered in the book. Would you like to learn more? Download the book now and start planning for your London with children trip today. Scroll to the top of this page and click on the "buy now" button.

Rick Steves London 2020 Quirk Books Eyewitness Travel Family Guide London offers you the best things to see and do on a family vacation in London, from visiting magnificent sights such as St. Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey to exploring the treasures housed in the National Gallery and Buckingham Palace, and brings those places alive for children with fun facts, quizzes, and cartoons. The major sights are treated as "hub" destinations and are followed by places of interest near the "hub," ideal for planning your day ahead. These spreads offer a pragmatic as well as enjoyable itinerary, giving children a real insight into the destination, but balanced with opportunities to let off steam at a nearby park or playground. All the practical information you need appears alongside the sight, including transportation information, budget tips, age range suitability, and where to eat. Each spread is bursting with insider knowledge and loaded with ideas for activities that will engage children, from treasure-hunt trails at the Foundling Museum to ice-skating at Somerset House in winter or dashing through the courtyard fountains in summer. Meanwhile, the most family-friendly, best-value accommodation options have been chosen with family budgets and needs in mind. Full-color throughout, with detailed maps of the main sightseeing areas for easy navigation and all the practical information you need for a fun, stress-free family vacation. Now available in ePub format.

Kids' Travel Guide Quirk Books
Gone is the time when a day out with kids meant bland food and weird, squashy play pens. The capital now boasts a multitude of stylish spots that have little Londoners fully in mind - you just need to know where to find them. Luckily, we do. From the most innovative outdoor playgrounds to the best place for a proper coffee while they slurp a babyccino, this handy little guide is full of shops, places, activities and cafes that we love visiting just as much as our under-five companions.
