Yellow Lotus Flower is a children's sing-along book for the soul. The story is told by the lotus herself, reminiscing on a time when she was a scared little seed, stuck in the murky depths of the pond, unsure of herself and if life would ever be different. Luckily, she encounters guides along the way, like the benevolent sun and a wise golden fish who proclaims, "there's light at the top, you've got to believe me! So grow up and up and send your roots down deep". The lotus flower lives a parallel and intertwined life with a grieving young girl. Through fear and uncertainty, they have to muster their own courage to send their roots down into the muck in order to transform into the beautiful flower and human they are meant to be. As Yellow Lotus Flower sings her song, she is joined by a symphony at the pond: a frog on guitar, singing dragonflies, turtles on drums and piano-playing newts. To conclude the epic song of her life, Yellow Lotus encourages the next generation of seeds to have faith that they too will find their way through the muck and bloom. Yellow Lotus Flower follows the simple life cycle of a flower, yet carries a deep personal and cultural message about transformation and finding our way through dark times. Author, scholar and elder, Joanna Macy, praises it as "a story for our times". Yellow Lotus Flower draws wisdom directly from the natural world and is also inspired by Buddhist teachings, offering a beacon of hope for children and parents grappling with life's inevitable challenges and transitions. "Yellow Lotus Flower, like the sun, you rise up from the darkness When tears come, your heart grows stronger, like the sun we rise up from the darkness" Yellow Lotus Flower offers an innovative multi-media experience, in which children and parents can sing along to the words of the book by downloading or streaming the Yellow Lotus Flower song, or scanning a QR code in the book. Children and parents can also find guitar chords in the back of the book, and learn how to play the song! The secret to happiness is to acknowledge and transform suffering, not to run away from it. In No Mud, No Lotus, Thich Nhat Hanh offers practices and inspiration transforming suffering and finding true joy. Thich Nhat Hanh acknowledges that because suffering can feel so bad, we try to run away from it or cover it up by consuming. We find something to eat or turn on the television. But unless we're able to face our suffering, we can't be present and available to life, and happiness will continue to elude us. Nhat Hanh shares how the practices of stopping, mindful breathing, and deep concentration can generate the energy of mindfulness within our daily lives. With that energy, we can embrace pain and calm it down, instantly bringing a measure of freedom and a clearer mind. No Mud, No Lotus introduces ways to be in touch with suffering without being overwhelmed by it. "When we know how to suffer," Nhat Hanh says, "we suffer much, much less." With his signature clarity and sense of joy, Thich Nhat Hanh helps us recognize the wonders inside us and around us that we tend to take for granted and teaches us the art of happiness.

Yellow Lotus Flower is a sing-a-long book for the soul. The Little Lotus Flower The Lotus Seed
To author Stephanie Morton, nature's powerful forces are a metaphor for the hardships faced by displaced children. Kids, like seeds, thrive when given a chance. Each of the three seeds in this story—a cherry seed in the Middle East, an acacia seed in Australia, and a lotus seed in Asia—survives a difficult journey through flood, fire, or drought, then sprouts (in the case of the lotus seed, a hundred years later) and flourishes. Stephanie's verses and Nicole Wong's art make a picture book to treasure.

For thousands of years the Lotus has been the symbol of spiritual purity in both Khemet (Egypt) and India. Similarly, the Lotus can be seen as the perfect example of spiritual growth and development in Western society. It is said that the life cycle of the Lotus plant begins when a Lotus seed finds its way into the sediments at the bottom of some warm little pond. In a like manner, many with the 'Lotus Nature' are found at the 'bottom' of society's social ladder i.e., the outcast, women, and so-called minorities; also those who have experienced the dark side of life. The lotus seed is planted in the bottom of the pond in darkness, veiled by the distractions that live in the murky water. A wonderful thing about the Lotus is that during its development, the plants filter and purify the body of water in which they find themselves; making the water transparent. Such is the same with those of the 'Lotus nature'. As they develop and seek the light of truth, they too filter and purify the body of murky water they find themselves in. One of the most important and fascinating things about the 'Lotus' is that even after growing in murky water it is untouched by the water's impurity. The fact that the 'Lotus' is untouched by the muddy waters in which it grows, points those of the 'Lotus nature' to the concept of detachment. Not only must we not be attached to outcomes in our work, but we must not be attached to the world even while continuing to live and work in it. We must be in the world but not of the world. We must continue to seek the light of truth. Just as the Lotus flower spreads its fragrance throughout the pond in which it grows, those of the 'Lotus nature' must strive to spread the fragrance of God to all of humanity.
