In a lifestyle business, the owner is responsible to no one but himself. A startup has the responsibility of making it big and earning money in order to be able to return the investment of the financiers and investors, as well as line the pockets of the owners.

How to Start a Lifestyle Business | Cleverism

A lifestyle business is one of the best examples for the connection between doing business and improving yourself. First of all, such people do it all on their own and start from nothing. They find a way to say no to conventional wisdom, to get clear about what they don't want in their life (like a regular job and lack of time), and to make a plan on how to get what they truly desire.
