The Holy Bible The Development of Incense Cult in Israel

This study was done during personal devotion, and notes were made to keep intact what was gathered during that time. While reading through the bible the author made some simple notations, outlines of selected sections, and selected some verses that the author felt were promises, directions, advises, assurances, songs, praises, and prayers. The author copied some of the verses to keep the full meaning intact or full value of the section, and in other sections, the author paraphrased or summarized them. Information presented in this book is gathered and assembled in a way the user of this book can understand major key information in a thumbnail fashion. This book can be a helpful tool for beginning theological students, pastors, and lay leaders, as well as laymen and families who are serious about studying the Bible in an easier fashion. This book can be used for personal study and devotion as well as for bible study classes. Catholic Bible Hendrickson Publishers
