What is language and how can we investigate its acquisition by children or adults? What perspectives exist from which to view acquisition? What internal constraints and external factors shape acquisition? What are the properties of interlanguage systems? This comprehensive 31-chapter handbook is an authoritative survey of second language acquisition (SLA). Its multi-perspective synopsis on recent developments in SLA research provides significant contributions by established experts and widely recognized younger talent. It covers cutting edge and emerging areas of enquiry not treated elsewhere in a single handbook, including third language acquisition, electronic communication, incomplete first language acquisition, alphabetic literacy and SLA, affect and the brain, discourse and identity. Written to be accessible to newcomers as well as experienced scholars of SLA, the Handbook is organised into six thematic sections, each with an editor-written introduction.

Lingua Latina is a complete immersion course providing Latin that students read and understand immediately. Every sentence is intelligible per se because the meaning and function of all new word forms is clear from the context, illustrations, or marginal notes throughout this carefully graded text. Part 1 (Familia Romana) is the eventful and entertaining story of a Roman family, which also serves as an introduction to the life and culture of ancient Rome. Part 2 (Roma Aeterna) tells Roman history from the beginnings. Students who have completed Part 1 are already able to read classical texts, such as Ørberg's editions of Caesar's Gallic Wars or of Plautus' Amphitryon. In Part 2, students read extensive selections from classical authors, refine their knowledge of syntax, and develop a vocabulary of over 4000 words. Upon completion of the course, students can read the most challenging classical texts with relative ease.

Excerpt from Deutsches Echo: The German Echo, or Dialogues to Teach German Conversation; With an Adequate Vocabulary Work Which shall enable them to learn here at home the conversational language of. Germany. This the Eono, in the main a reprint of the german Eono by Wolfram, aims to supply. It is designed to furnish the learner with an extensive vocabulary of words and expressions in common use; to free him from the embarrassments Which the peculiarities of his own tongue are likely to be to 'him; to make him thoroughly familiar with the use of proper idioms in short, to provide him With the material for intelligent, correct and varied conversation, and to enable the learner also to understand the language as spoken, one of the greatest difficulties to be encountered in the practical use of a foreign language. The method here adopted differs greatly from that generally developed in the conversational books. It teaches the learner not to translate his thoughts but to think in the language which he is to speak. He is carried, as it were, into the very midst of the scenes of actual life, and is taught to sustain his share in the interchange of social talk. - at the same time, he learns much of the manners and customs of the country whose language he is seeking to master, and is thus not only enlarging his familiarity with the language, but also with the people themselves. As to the most advantageous use of the book, we can do no better than give the motto which Prendergast has adopted for his mastery seriesz. Gutta cavat lapidem non vi sed scrape cadendo (the drop hollows the stone, not by force, but by the frequency of its fall). Hans Oerberg's Lingua Latina per se illustrata is the world's premiere series for learning Latin via the Natural Method. Students first learn grammar and vocabulary intuitively through extended contextual reading and an innovative system of marginal notes. It is the only textbook currently available that gives students the opportunity to learn Latin without resorting to translation, but allows them to think in the language. It is also the most popular text for teachers, at both the secondary and collegiate levels, who wish to incorporate conversational skills into their classroom practice. The second of two volumes in the series Lingua Latina per se illustrata, Roma Aeterna introduces the most celebrated authors of antiquity through the lens of Roman history. A vivid description of the city's monuments precedes a prose retelling of the first four books of Virgil's Aeneid, with many of the most famous passages in their original verse form. The selection from Virgil is followed by Book One of Livy's engaging mythical history of Rome's foundation. The prose selections are judiciously chosen and, in the first few chapters, gently adapted to provide students with attest that is authentically Latin and yet not difficult. The unadapted selections which make up the majority of the text are taken from Aulus Gellius, Ovid, Nepos, Sallust, and Horace. These annotated selections make Roma Aeterna useful both as the next step after Familia Romana and as a survey of Latin literature in its own right. Roma Aeterna incorporates the following features: Latin immersion with vowel lengths marked Approximately 3,000 new vocabulary words Short discussions of grammar and exercises for each chapter Selected readings cover the material in a Roman history course Index of Roman rulers and of historical events arranged chronologically The volume Indices contains chronological lists of Roman consuls and their triumphs, Fasti consulares and triumphales, a name index, Index nominum, with short explanations in Latin, and an Index vocabulorum, covering all the words used in Parts I and II.

„Lingua Latina per se illustrata?“ befasst sich mit dem gleichnamigen Latein-Lehrbuch des Dänen Hans H. Ørberg. In der Arbeit werden vornehmlich theoretische Aussagen zur Anwendbarkeit dieses Lehrbuchs im deutschen, speziell aber im sächsischen Schulkontext getroffen. Grundlagen dieser Analyse sind der sächsische Lehrplan, die Schulbuchverordnung, das Lehrbuch selbst und das Lehrerhandbuch zum Schulbuch. Die Tatsache, dass Ørberg in anderen Ländern der Welt bekannt ist und dass dort gemäß seiner Vorstellung vom Lernen Lateinunterricht erteilt wird, eröffnet die Frage, warum dieses Lehrbuch in Deutschland keine offizielle Schulbuchzulassung hat. Daher wird versucht, Kriterien zur Anwendbarkeit zu erarbeiten, die anhand der zur Verfügung stehenden Materialien überprüft werden sollen. Diese Arbeit bietet einen kurzen Abriss über die Anforderungen des sächsischen Lehrplans an ein Schulbuch, eine nützliche Zusammenstellung der Inhalte des Lehrbuchs „Lingua Latina per se illustrata“ sowie Anregungen, die in der praktischen Umsetzung berücksichtigt werden sollten.

This volume is the completely reset Second Edition of Jeanne Marie Neumann's A College Companion (Focus, 2008). It offers a running exposition, in English, of the Latin grammar covered in Hans H. Ørberg's Familia Romana, and includes the complete text of the Ørberg ancillaries Grammatica Latina and Latin-English Vocabulary. It also serves as a substitute for Ørberg's Latine Disco, on which it is based. As it includes no exercises, however, it is not a substitute for the Ørberg ancillary Exercitia Latina I. Though designed especially for those approaching Familia Romana at an accelerated pace, this volume will be useful to anyone seeking an explicit layout of Familia Romana's inductively-presented grammar. In addition to many revisions of the text, the Second Edition also includes new units on cultural context, tied to the narrative content of the chapter.

English by the by Nature Method. The aim of the natural approach is to develop communicative skills, and it is primarily intended to be used with beginning learners. It is presented as a set of principles that can apply to a wide range of learners and teaching situations, and concrete objectives depend on the specific context in which it is used. Terrell outlines three basic principles of the approach: "Focus of instruction is on communication rather than its form." "Speech production comes slowly and is never forced." "Early speech goes through natural stages (yes or no response, one- word answers, lists of words, short phrases, complete sentences.)" These principles result in classrooms where the teacher emphasizes interesting, comprehensible input and low-anxiety situations.
