The Jindabyne Secret

Springer

The Rise has flooded Australia's coastal areas... but life isn't any easier inland. With nothing but a map and a rickety solar truck, Jax journeys to a top-secret government facility at Lake Jindabyne--one of the few freshwater lakes left in Australia. Outraged by the injustice of these people having excess water while his family suffers from dehydration, Jax hatches a plan. At first he starts small--stealing just enough water to ease the parched tongues back home--but with each trip the risks he takes become greater. It is only a matter of time before he gets caught. And the penalty for hydro-theft is death.

Spirit Sisters AuthorHouse
Amazing and inspiring business journeys of real people in Hertfordshire, United Kingdom! Their struggles, what motivated them and how they kept on going and believed in their dreams. There are some fantastic business gems in this book that you do not want to miss. "They believed they could, so they did!"
Woman 2 Woman Penguin
This volume contains

Harriet Martineau's writings on the history of England and its efforts and negotiations to promote peace between 1834 and 1841, providing a detailed account of the political revolutions and democratic and military reforms that shaped England's history.

"Smart, funny, and compulsively readable." -- Kirkus (starred review) As a young girl, Neave was often stuck in a world that didn't know what to do with her. As her mother not unkindly told her, she was never going to grow up to be a great beauty. Her glamorous sister, Lilly, moved easily through the world, a parade of handsome men in pursuit. Her brother didn't want a girl joining his group of friends. And their small town of Lynn, Massachusetts, didn't have a place for a girl whose feelings often put her at war with the world - often this meant her mother, her brother, and the town librarian who wanted to keep her away from the Dangerous Books she really wanted to read. But through an unexpected friendship, Neave finds herself with a forbidden copy of The Pirate Lover, a steamy romance, and Neave discovers a world of passion, love, and betrayal. And it is to this world that as a grown up she retreats to again and again when real life becomes too much. Neave finds herself rereading The Pirate Lover more than she ever would have expected because as she gets older, life does not follow the romances she gobbled up as a child. When Neave and Lilly are about to realize their professional dream, Lilly suddenly disappears. Neave must put her beloved books down and take center stage, something she has been running from her entire life. And she must figure out what happened to Lilly – and if she's next. Who Neave turns to help her makes Sharon Pywell's The Romance Reader's Guide to Life one of the most original, entertaining, exciting, and chilling novels you will read this year. The Sugar Queen Storey Publishing Identifies a link between stress and aging, counseling readers on avoiding and reversing stress-related skin damage, assessing one's individual needs, and pursuing financially viable treatments. 100,000 first printing.

A memoir of growing up in South Australia, Henry von Doussa revisits his family life and coming out in the time of HIV-AIDS. How to Turn Your Million Dollar Idea Into a Reality \(from the Man Who Sold MCG\) Peter Williams
A new edition of the classic gardening handbook details a simple yet highly effective gardening system, based on a grid of one-foot by one-foot squares, that produces big yields with less space and with less work than with conventional row gardens. Reissue. 30,000 first printing.

WOMAN 2 WOMAN is the ultimate guide book for all New Zealand women, whether you work for someone else or have your own business. Over 70 inspiring women share their experience and practical tips, integrated into key themes relevant to career, business and lifestyle. It includes Teresa Gattung, CEO of Telecom; Ann Sherry, CEO of Westpac; Peri Drysdale, CEO of Snowy Peak; and Dame Silvia Cartwright, Governor-General of New Zealand. There is something for everyone in this book - for those who are just starting out, those seeking to get ahead and those who're looking for a career break or bold new direction. It includes advice from some of New Zealand's top businesswomen on strategies for success in the workplace, how to maximise returns in your own business and how to achieve work/life balance. At last, essentials like balance sheets and breakeven and ratio analysis are explained in a way that makes them easy to understand. WOMAN2WOMAN can help you create the life you want. AMANDA ELLIS, the principal author, has a global role leading the World Bank's work on gender in Private Sector Development. Originally from Dunedin, Amanda was formerly Westpac Australia's Head of Women's Markets and National Manager for Women in Business. JUNE MCCABE is Westpac New Zealand's Director of Corporate Affairs and is involved with many boards and trusts in support of business and community endeavours. She champions Maori economic development and the empowerment of women entrepreneurs.

We Are Not Most People Lulu Press, Inc
A wise man once said,

"the key to failure is trying to please everybody." But before you can tell others NO, you have to be able to tell yourself YES. Yes to embarking on a path of personal growth. Yes to ending the cycle of people-pleasing and self-neglect-finally and forever. Plainly put, you must develop a BACKBONE. Yes, it is a process and a journey. Yes, you will be tested. But on the other side of this crucible lies empowerment and respect. Let Dr. Anne

Brown, a practicing therapist for the last twenty-five years, show you the way. Yes, it is worth it and no, you won't be sorry.

Euphoria Kids Rodale Kurt Stocker's Swiss childhood is dominated by strict and god-fearing parents. He enters a seminary with the intent of becoming a priest and making his parents proud of him, but struggles to adapt. Leaving this vocation behind, he marries Liesl and they eventually emigrate to Australia. Decades later in small town Australia, Terry Riley feels drawn to convent life, despite her parent's objections. At the convent she is haunted by a strange sickness and knows in time that she must return to a more conventional life. It is then she begins a relationship with the now divorced Kurt, who was once her high school teacher. This is the story of an odd couple, of an older man and a younger woman in love with one another, but so damaged by their past lives that even a regular sexual relationship seems impossible. Beautiful in its frankness but disturbing in its examination of faith and human existence, this is a novel that is affectionate, haunting and ultimately unforgettable.

Isn't it great to get help and support at the times when you desperately need it? What if you think you don't know anyone at all who might help? Even in those dark moments and hours when it seems that everything is completely hopeless, you can be rescued. There is evidence of miracles all around us if we are paying attention. Living in Aspen, Colorado, I went through a very painful divorce, leading me to experience one of my biggest miracles within only one month after the divorce. From that point on, I started considering miracles as a viable option, sometimes my one and only option, and it worked! After that, it was demonstrated to me time and time again, so much that I decided to write a book about it, and it's not reserved for just a 'chosen' few.

This textbook familiarises students with the theory and practice of small business management and challenges assumptions that may be held about the way small business management can or should adopt the management practices of larger firms. For students interested in establishing and managing their own small firm, this book helps them to focus their thinking on the realities of life as a small business owner-manager – both its challenges and its rewards. For postgraduate students that are keen to ‘make a difference’, this text enables them to understand how they might consult to small firms and assist owner-managers to establish and grow their ventures. In addition to students, this book is also useful to small business owner-managers as a general guide on how they might better manage their operations. Managers in large corporations and financial institutions who deal with small businesses as clients or suppliers, and professionals such as accountants, lawyers and consultants who provide advice and other services to small businesses will also find the book of interest.

Ever since the witch cursed Babs, she turns invisible sometimes. She has her mum and her dog, but teachers and classmates barely notice her. Then, one day, Iris can see her. And Iris likes what they see. Babs is made of fire. Iris grew from a seed in the ground. They have friends, but not human ones. Not until they meet Babs. The two of them have a lot in common: they speak to dryads and faeries, and they're connected to the magic that's all around them. There's a new boy at school, a boy who's like them and who hasn't yet found his real name. Soon the three of them are hanging out and trying spellwork together. Magic can be dangerous, though. Witches and fae can be cruel. Something is happening in the other realm, and despite being warned to stay away, the three friends have to figure out how to deal with it on their own terms. Anyone who loves the work of Francesca Lia

Block and delights in Studio Ghibli films will be entranced by this gorgeous and gentle young adult novel about three queer friends who come into their power.
