Studia Typologica publishes scholarly studies of high quality dedicated to promising new topics in the realm of general-comparative linguistics. The series especially welcomes contributions which argue on a solid empirical foundation, have a cross-linguistic orientation and raise new issues which are addressed in innovative ways. The series encourages work on understudied languages and understudied phenomena. Studia Typologica is also interested in areal-typological studies and research on the interface of language contact and language typology. The series is meant as a forum for typologically minded investigations independent of the school of thought the authors adhere to. Monographs as well as collections of articles (sharing a common theme) are published in this series. All manuscripts are peer-reviewed (double blind). The language of publication is English.

My Beautiful Birds Routledge

Teaching language and teaching with languages is what is called for in contemporary classrooms, be they language classrooms or otherwise. When the learners' plurilingualism and societies' multilingualism have social, cultural or political implications, becoming aware of language matters is a necessity both for non-specialist teachers and language teachers alike. This book thus presents a variety of research-based perspectives on the cultural-political and social-educational domains of language awareness. Context, both historical, socio-economic, political and cultural has an undeniable impact on language attitudes and awareness, and the variety of different contexts contained in this volume - the Basque Country, Catalonia (Spain), England (UK), Finland, Germany, Hong Kong (China), Japan, Portugal, Scotland (UK), and Turkey - testifies to this. As each chapter outlines the specificities and the impact of context upon language policies, attitudes and beliefs, the authors in this book focus on language awareness as a multi-faceted concept fit to play a major role in the reform processes of teacher education in the 21st century.

Language Awareness in Teacher Education Vermilion

'... A beautifully written, articulate and compelling argument for a sociocultural perspective on second language teacher education . . . Essential reading for all who wish to understand this perspective.' – David Nunan, University of Hong Kong '...Significant and timely. Johnson is masterful at writing in an engaging, transparent prose about complex concepts. It's a rare scholar who can write prose like this. Throughout my reading I wanted to engage in dialogue with her – this is a sure sign of a great book." – Diane Tedick, University of Minnesota, USA This book presents a comprehensive overview of the epistemological underpinnings of a sociocultural perspective on human learning and addresses in detail what this perspective has to offer the field of second language teacher education. Captured through five changing points of view, it argues that a sociocultural perspective on human learning changes the way we think about how teachers learn to teach, how teachers think about language, how teachers teach second languages, the broader social, cultural, and historical macro-structures that are ever present and ever changing in the second language teaching profession, and what constitutes second language teacher professional development. Overall, it clearly and accessibly makes the case that a sociocultural perspective on human learning reorients how the field understands and supports the professional development of second language teachers.

This text, originally published in 1997, not only provides a critical examination of the significance of Foucauldian thought for education, but also discusses how Foucault's theories are arrayed in the everyday life of schools.

Behind Sami, the Syrian skyline is full of smoke. The boy follows his family and all his neighbours in a long line, as they trudge through the sands and hills to escape the bombs that have destroyed their homes. But all Sami can think of is his pet pigeons - will they escape too? When they reach a refugee camp and are safe at last, everyone settles into the tent city. But though the children start to play and go to school again, Sami can't join in. When he is given paper and paint, all he can do is smear his painting with black. He can't forget his birds and what his family has left behind. One day a canary, a dove, and a rose finch fly into the camp. They flutter around Sami and settle on his outstretched arms. For Sami it is one step in a long healing process at last. A gentle yet moving story of refugees of the Syrian civil war, My Beautiful Birds illuminates the ongoing crisis as it affects its children. It shows the reality of the refugee camps, where people attempt to pick up their lives and carry on. And it reveals the hope of generations of people as they struggle to redefine home.

Diese Publikation ist aus dem Projekt Deutsch von Anfang an des Goethe-Instituts Istanbul hervorgegangen. DaF-Expertinnen aus sechs südosteuropäischen Ländern (Bosnien und Herzegowina, Griechenland, Kroatien, Mazedonien, Serbien und der Türkei) analysieren den Ist-Zustand des Frühen Deutschlernens in ihren Bildungssystemen und gehen folgenden Fragen nach: Welche Stärken und Schwächen weist das Frühe Deutschlernen auf? Vor welchen Herausforderungen steht die Weiterentwicklung des Frühen DaF? Auf welche Potentiale kann die

Qualitätsentwicklung des Frühen Deutschlernens zurückgreifen? Welche Veränderungen sind erforderlich, um die Qualität des Frühen DaF-Unterrichts zu verbessern? Im Mittelpunkt der Länderberichte stehen folgende sechs, für den Frühen DaF-Unterricht zentrale Bereiche: - bildungspolitische und systemische Rahmenbedingungen - curriculare Vorgaben - Lehr- und Lernmaterialien - Evaluation - Lehrer/-innenbildung und -fortbildung - Verbindung von Forschung und Praxis Die Beiträge entwerfen ein detailliertes und vielfältiges Bild des Frühen DaF in Südosteuropa; sie zeigen große Unterschiede insbesondere in Bezug auf die Rahmenbedingungen, aber auch Gemeinsamkeiten im Kontext der fachdidaktischen und sprachpolitischen Entwicklungen in Europa mit dem Schwerpunkt Frühes Fremdsprachenlernen auf. Als Quintessenz des Projekts wurden auf Grundlage der Länderberichte Handlungsempfehlungen zum Frühen DaF-Lehren und -Lernen entwickelt. Diese richten sich wie der gesamte Band an Entscheidungsträger/-innen im Bildungssektor, DaF-Lehrkräfte sowie an alle Reforminteressierte, die sich für eine Integration des Frühen DaF-Unterrichts in das Konzept einer europäischen Mehrsprachigkeit einsetzen.
