Cambridge English Advanced 5 Student's Book without Answers Cambridge English
 CAE Speaking test part 3 This book contains 10 complete practice tests for the Cambridge English C1 Advanced Speaking, previously known as the Advanced Certificate in English (CAE). These sample tests have been written to closely replicate the Cambridge CAE Speaking exam experience and so each test follows the same structure and wording as official C1 Advanced Speaking papers. Because of this, candidates will become familiar with the topics, the structure, the timing and the level by the time they sit their C1 exam. Answers included In addition to 10 complete practice tests for C1 Advanced Speaking, this book also contains model answers with examiner comments and ready-to-use speaking mark sheets. Prepare and practice for the C1 exam This book also includes an in-depth description of the C1 Advanced Speaking paper, and so provides a large bank of high-quality practice material both for students and for teachers preparing students for the exam. About the author Luis Porras Wadley is an English teacher, EFL blogger, freelance writer and translator, who has been director of KSE Academy in Granada since 2016.

The Architecture of Happiness Oxford

'House' has long been synonymous with 'home': the significance of four walls and a roof lies far deeper than simply shelter from the elements. A house stands for sanctuary, family, belonging, privacy and our pasts: even when standardised as a 'Barratt Home' or modern housing estate, every house bears the stamp of the people who live in it, remaining a bastion of quirky individualism. The Great Indoors is the first cultural history of the family home in the twentieth century, comparable to Rachel Hewitt's Map of a Nation or Joe Moran's Queuing for Beginners. As society has changed, so has the house: the hall - which had its finest hour during the middle ages, when families and their servants ate, slept and socialised there together - has now been relegated to a mere passageway, only useful for getting to other (more private) rooms. Highmore shows how houses display the currents of class, identity and social transformation that are displayed in the arrangement and use of the family home. And he also offers an engaging and stimulating peek through the curtains to explain why the fridge is used as a communication centre, how the loo (or toilet) inspired its very own literary genre and what your furniture arrangement reveals about how you function as a family.

CAE Practice Tests OUP Oxford

These five practice tests closely replicate the Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English in both content and presentation, therefore providing realistic exam practice at the level of the CAE. This new edition incorporates all the changes made to the CAE examination (1999 and 2000), offering practice in the new exam formats. In addition to these changes, numerous revisions have been made to ensure that these tests accurately reflect the current exam. (The authors are closely involved with the CAE and as such have in-depth knowledge of all the papers. (Each of the texts in Papers 1 and 3 comes from a different source, giving students experience in dealing with a wide variety of reading material. (Photocopiable answer sheets enable students to practise transferring their answers from the test paper, reducing the risk of making mistakes under pressure in the actual exam. (Genuine examination conditions are simulated for Paper 4 Listening through the inclusion of instructions, pauses and repeats on the cassettes. (Full colour photographs and illustrations are included for Paper 5 Speaking. (All five tests have been piloted with groups of students preparing for the CAE. The With Answers edition contains information on marking and sample student answers to the Paper 2 Part 1 writing tasks, in addition to a full key and scripts of the recorded material.

CAE Practice Tests 1 Teacher's Book Cambridge University Press

Bestselling author Alain de Botton considers how our private homes and public edifices influence how we feel, and how we could build dwellings in which we would stand a better chance of happiness. In this witty, erudite look at how we shape, and are shaped by, our surroundings, Alain de Botton applies Stendhal's motto that "Beauty is the promise of happiness" to the spaces we inhabit daily. Why should we pay attention to what architecture has to say to us? de Botton asks provocatively. With his trademark lucidity and humour, de Botton traces how human needs and desires have been served by styles of architecture, from stately Classical to minimalist Modern, arguing that the stylistic choices of a society can represent both its cherished ideals and the qualities it desperately lacks. On an individual level, de Botton has deep sympathy for our need to see our selves reflected in our surroundings; he demonstrates with great wisdom how buildings — just like friends — can serve as guardians of our identity. Worrying about the shape of our sofa or the colour of our walls might seem self-indulgent, but de Botton considers the hopes and fears we have for our homes at a new level of depth and insight. When shopping for furniture or remodelling the kitchen, we don't just consider functionality but also the major questions of aesthetics and the philosophy of art: What is beauty? Can beautiful surroundings make us good? Can beauty bring happiness? The buildings we find beautiful, de Botton concludes, are those that represent our ideas of a meaningful life. The Architecture of Happiness marks a return to what Alain does best — taking on a subject whose allure is at once tantalizing and a little forbidding and offering to readers a completely beguiling and original exploration of the subject. As he did with Proust, philosophy, and travel, now he does with architecture.
